Dear mr. Primakov,

As a continuation of our conversation I would like to recommend you that a Belgian businessmen Daniel Looffen takes part in congresses and seminars on international economic activity and investments, organized by the Chamber.

Mr. Looffen is a high class manager and has an experience of collaboration with Russia since 1994. He is familiar with the Russian market. He has successfully promoted some Belgian goods in Russia and other countries of the CIS. For many companies his participation has become critical to establish long term bilateral cooperation ties.

Furthermore, mr. Looffen has a perfect reputation and enjoys a good support among the European business community. He speaks English, French and other European languages, studies Russian and has skills to speak in public.

In case of your definitive approval, I am intended to provide to your staff a detailed CV of mr. Looffen and his contact information.

I would like to enjoy this possibility to wish you well and luck in your work.

Sincerely Yours,
